Good morning Rafina,
Would it be possible to pick up the curtains today?
Is there a good time for you?
Best,

Hello Sarah,

Please be informed that the curtain fabrication is completed and is ready for pick up. However, this morning I'll be in New Jersey and would be back after lunch.

Please let me know if you would like to have it picked up this afternoon or tomorrow.

I'll forward the invoice later today because I'm rushing right now.

All the best.

Rafina.
