Hi [REDACTED]

Sorry about delay

Your measurements are correct, 17 seems correct and if I remember the leather it is not stressed hence no wastage. [REDACTED] has confirmed with John that he can install the leather and complete the finish wood work

If you need any further info just let me know

Warmest regards

Hi [REDACTED] can I ask you a favor and confirm that I'm doing my measurements right? Below are my measurements of the 2 windows behind JE's desk, the 2 doors and the large picture window. I want to order the leather today for the panels and want to make sure I'm ordering the correct amount. The leather comes 55" wide. For the 2 windows behind JE desk, JE wants it to be one solid panel of leather, not divided in two. The doors will need 2 panels each, and of course the picture window will need 4 panels. I calculated 17 yards needed. Could you confirm that for me? Thank you so much!

Also, Jeffrey agrees that we need to add the finishing edge to the inside of the panels on the doors and the inside of the 2 middle picture window panels. Please let me know if John can do that. thanks.
