Haha!! Just read your last email. I could definitely pick it up. I think you have some time.

This is great--so when do you think you should order it? In March of next year? &nbs;How much is the bag alone? So that I can get an idea on total cost. Do you think you'd be able to pick it up once it was done? xoxo

Right now personalization would take 2 months since everyone is on vaca in Paris. If you bought it in September, it would take 4-6 weeks. Metallic lettering is double the price of normal colors. Metallic would be 240 euros to do initials.

Hey! So I figured out what I want JB to get me for my wedding present and he will need your help :)

I want the large white Goyard tote with my new initials on it. I was thinking in metallic gold or white depending on what my rings end up being. What do you think the leadtime would be on this?
