Subject: uniforms

This is the best US uniform website I found so far: <https://tophatimagewear.com/collections/housekeeping>
I ordered a few things already from other websites to try. But I think these are nicer.
I like the options below. They are all custom, so can be any color or any other details. Normal lead time is 8-10 weeks (so I am not sure if we need one or [REDACTED] in that case), or expedited for extra charge. Shall I order?
