Hi Allison,
They can do it on Sunday, as long as they have people to move the furniture out, because our housemen won't be here.

Hi Allison,

That is great news! I do not have the measurements, but I can ask our people to measure if you need. If she could pick up this week by Friday, that would be great, as we are trying to clean the house.

Please let me know.

Thank you!

Hi Karyna,

I think we have a taker (Amanda in the office:)) for the attached three items . Do you have measurements? When does it all need to be picked up by?

Thanks!
