Okey all is good! Your idea is much better by ordering at Amazon is more easier for everyone. Thank you [REDACTED] for your help. We really appreciate it so much and we will start making the list what we need to buy for the house and for the guest apartment and give it to you so you can check it. Thanks again.

Thank you [REDACTED], that is a very good point!

I was suggesting to order as much as possible on Amazon (also makes it easier to keep track of the receipts) and then have a few locations for the things that need to be purchased directly from the store.

<=pan>Dear

I just wanted to let you know that  is for now in charge of buying all the inventory for 71st and 301 guest apartments, which is quite a lot of purchases, so I wanted to make sure that she has enough spending on her card to be able to do that please.
