I told her it is no trouble and we feel terrible for the mix up and the apt is free at any time should she want to use it.

Hi [REDACTED]..no problem at all. These things happen.

Just struggling a little and getting to hotel downtown. I had to commit for a few days so I will probably just stay at hotel to minimize further inconvenience on anyone.

[REDACTED] at same hotel so makes is even more convenient!

Sorry for any trouble I've caused. =br>

Hi [REDACTED], =br>I just got home and the doorman at the apartments told me that the wrong code was given to you for [REDACTED]! I am so sorry. I have the correct code. The doorman should have called my cell. He said you booked yourself a hotel for tonight. Will you be coming back to the apt for tomorrow and the rest of your stay? Again, I am so sorry this happened! =br>
