Hi [REDACTED] =/p>

I hope you are getting excited for tomorrow! We are thrilled to be caring for you. I just want to review some very important information with you:</=pan>

· Your arrival time is 7:45AM tomorrow morning.

· It is imperative that you arrive on time. We are in New York City, where gridlock and congestion are the rule, and you= trip to the office will be during peak commuting hours. Please anticip=te traffic, and make your timely travel plans accordingly.

· NOTHING TO EAT OR DRINK AFTER MIDNIGHT

* Bring all of your prescriptions with you to the office so we can review them with you.

* If you wear contacts, please either wear yo=r glasses or bring your case.

* Make sure you have arranged for someone to pick you up tomorrow following your surgery. If your ride does not wan= to wait here at the office I will be happy to call them when I get you into recovery to give them an approximate pick-up time.

If you have any questions please feel free to call or email me. Also I ask that yo= reply to this email me so I know you have received and read it. I am s= excited for you and will see you tomorrow!

Warmest Regards,

Stephanie DeFranco, APRN
