Hi Jabor Shuliak!

Welcome to 23andMe.

By registering your kit, you have connected the barcode on your saliva collection tube to your 23andMe online account. This allows us to know which sample is yours when it arrives at the lab.

After you send in your kit, you can track the status by signing into your account

<https://you.23andme.com?utm\_c=mpaign=registration\_confirmation&utm\_medium=email&utm\_source==3andme&utm\_content=23c\_Product> . We will also send you an email at each step letting you know how your sample is progressing through the process. For important information about 23andMe reports, see our package inserts for Carrier Status reports and Genetic Health Risk reports <<https://www.23andme.com/package-insert/genetic-health/>> .
