This is different! This is a QUICK in and out guest we need to accommodate...not ideal, but we will handle it! Ion Nicola, Jeffrey's painter who has been on the island, will travel from the island to NY tomorrow ...he wants to spend the night in an apt and do the rest of his traveling home to Bucharest on Monday...Jeffrey said ok...so we are now all scrambling to make it happen...I have changed his ticket, but we need the apartment for him tomorrow and Monday...I have let Tess, Leo and Erwin know they now need to clean 3M on Tuesday (not Monday) All good!
