Hi Karyna,

I hope that you are =njoying Japan to the fullest.

There is no dress code but you already =now about tatami and zabuton at Tawaraya.

Short =kirts and tight pants are not comfortable, I think.

OK, we'll arrange the =9th. Keep the evening free. We'll get you instructions, etc. =asically, you will go, they will feed you. (Hopefully, you have no food =llergies right?) You will be accompanied by geisha (In Kyoto, they are =alled "geiko") and Maiko who will hang out with you. =fter the meal, they will dance for you. You can ask them anything, =about Kyoto, their lives, their art, food, etc. Many of them are very =unny and interesting. Some don't speak English well, but some =o. :-)

Hi Joi,

Thank you so much for the offer, it is very kind of you! =/span>

Thursday =he 29th would be perfect for us.

Thank you very much!!!

Karyna.

P.S. I wanted to thank Mizuka again for the hotel recommendation in Kyoto, we just arrived today, it is such a special place..

Hi Karyna,

Jeffrey mentioned that you might want to go to our teahouse =n Kyoto. Can you tell me what evenings you are free. Mizuka will try to =rrange it. They have to do some arrangements. The best "typical♦=80♦ evening includes a dinner and then drinks with geisha and maiko =ncluding traditional Japanese dance. Does this sound good?

Tell me which evenings you are available. Thanks!
