*Settle in, walk around town.

*Dinner --at hotel

Tuesday 27th

*Perhaps the Tawaraya Hotel would have a guide to show us around the city? Take in the special nature of the accommodations.

*Dinner -

Wednesday 28th

*Arashiyama (30mins from Kyoto) http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e3950_arashiyama_full.html

- Monkey Park on the south of the Togetsukyo Bridge. It takes about 20 minutes to climb the mountain to see the monkeys, and there are good views of Kyoto from the top. (90min)

- Cross the Togetsukyo Bridge and spend a few minutes viewing the bridge. Some of the best views are from downstream of the bridge. (20min)

- Explore Tenryuji Temple (45min)

- Bamboo Groves =/span>From Tenryuji walk to Arashiyama Station and rent a bicycle. Then, head into the =amboo groves behind Tenryuji Temple. Turn right as you get to the entrance =f Okochi =anso <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e3912.html#okochi>> and =ontinue toward Jojakkoji. =/span>(30min)
- Explore Jojakkoji <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e3912.html#jojakkoji>> Temple - best in autumn when the leaves change colors. (30min)
- =/span>(Opt: Nisonin Temple)
- Continue north and stop off at Gioji, a =mall, quiet temple known for its maple trees and moss garden. (45min)
- Continue along the main road until you get to Saga-Toriimoto Preserved =street, a historic street lined by =traditional townhouses (machiya). Explore the shops and restaurants along the way. =his may be a good place to have lunch. (45min)

*Lunch

-(Opt: Adashino Nenbutsuji Not to =e confused with nearby Otagi Nenbutsuji, the Adashino Nenbutsuji is another interesting temple in the area. =t has hundred of stone statues as well as a small bamboo grove.)

- Follow the road past the preserved streets to Otagi Nenbutsuji, a temple whose =rounds are covered in hundreds of small stone statues. (1hr)
- Explore Daikakuji. From the exit of Otagi Nenbutsuji, cross over to the larger, two lane =oad that parallels the road you arrived on. One block before the first traffic =ight, veer left and head through the rice fields and residential neighborhoods =oward Daikakuji <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e3964.html>> . Explore Daikakuji. =/span>(90min)

*Dinner

Thursday 29th

*Nara =/span>(Full Day? Half Day?) (55min from =yoto) <http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e4100.html>

- Todaiji Temple =s one of Japan's most famous and historically significant temples and a landmark of Nara. The temple was constructed in 752 as the =ead temple of all provincial Buddhist <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e2055.html>> temples <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e2058.html>> . (7:30a – 5p)

- Horyuji Temple - founded in 607 by Prince Shotoku, who is credited with the early promotion of Buddhism in Japan. Horyuji is one of the country's oldest temples and contains the world's oldest surviving wooden structures. (8a-5p)

- Isuien is an attractive Japanese garden with a variety of features, such as the use of Todaiji Temple's Nandaimon Gate and Mount Wakakusayama as "borrowed scenery". Isuien means "garden founded on water", and the garden's name is derived from the fact that its ponds are fed by the small adjacent Yoshikigawa river. (9:30a – 4:30p)

- Nara Park

- Isuien Garden – traditional garden 670

(Review: I usually leave Kyoto around 8 AM. I'd arrive in Nara around 8:30 and walk to Kofukuji (5 story pagoda,) Great Buddha and Kasuga Shrine. I'd come back near Nara Station and have lunch and head to Himeji via Osaka. I'd see the Castle and be back to Kyoto by dinnertime. It's a easy day trip.)

*Dinner

Friday 30th

*Joi's Tea House

*Dinner

Saturday 1st

Depart Kyoto – Arrive Himeji

*Drop luggages off ???

*Himeji (姫路) is most famous for its magnificent castle, Himeji Castle <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e3501.html>> , widely considered to be Japan's most beautiful surviving feudal castle <<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e2296.html>> . The castle is designated both a national treasure and a UNESCO world heritage site.

Depart Himeji – Arrive Tokyo

*Edo Castle / Imperial Palace

Japan's capital city manages to wrangle a slot in the list through a slight technicality, as Edo Castle was long ago absorbed into the Imperial Palace.

*Ginza

*Omotesando – Meiji Shrine (Western Tokyo)
