Dear MS Richardson, Thank you for taking the time to speak to me on the phone yesterday. I am looking forward to being approved for licensure at the next Board meeting. I am following up as you requested to verify that my application is complete. I have requested confirming emails and will call you again today to make certain that you have what is needed. My concern arises out of the fact that I have been told twice before that it is complete only to have another request a few weeks later. I would like to start practicing as soon as possible. I have set up an office, applied for malpractice insurance and a tax id as requested. Again thank you for your time and consideration.
