Subject: Please can you Write Karyna a Letter! (just in case)

Hi Antoine...Jeffrey is asking if you can please write a letter of accommodation for Karyna just in case your friend cannot pull through on this letter from the hotel...might it be possible? below the requirements from the visa application...it seems to me it does require someone to go to the city hall in St. Barth's and get this "Attestation d'Accueil" form and it must be stamped by the consulate..do you have a friend on the island who could do this for you at any chance?

if you are staying with family or friend(s) you must present a certificate of board and lodging "Attestation d'Accueil", which has to be obtained by your relatives or friends at the city hall ("Mairie"). The original needs to be stamped by this consulate to be valid and should be presented upon arrival in France.
