Is this ok?

Dear Dr. Evangelidis,=u>

On Friday I met with my group leader Dr.Odusola to discuss an issue that I have been trying to understand now for week=, - namely the graduation requirement that is referred to as the "encounter rate". I am still perplexed as to how this number is calculated and would appreciate a written explanation of its form=la so that I may adjust my schedule as needed. I understood from our con=ersation with Dr. Odusola, that it is a computer generated number, but without the details find it diffic=lt to make the necessary course correction. With your help, I would like to map out a schedule to enable me to comply with all graduation requirements so that I may be certain to meet them on time. At the lea=t, it seems highly questionable that if patients cancel their appointment=, especially at the last minute, that their irresponsibility should in any wa= have a negative impact on my performance rating. =/span>

I look for=ard to receiving your response and am willing to meet at any time convenient for you.
