Privetik Karyna!

The only thing that we bought in PB this time was his face and eyes cream (I showed it to you in NY). Luella said that she had thrown away the old products that had expired.

I hadn't shopped for PB for more than 2 years. The only thing that I found there was the "Barbor" facial foaming mask.

There are more things in the 2nd bathroom, but not sure there are any facials((I think [REDACTED] asked him when they were going to Sephora if he needed any facial products, but he said no.

The hair treatments that we did there - I had brought them all from NY and we finished them at the ranch.
