Greetings to Everyone,

As promised, the=update on the Artefacto quote:

The South Beach li=e from which the PB furniture was purchased is being discontinued.

As a result, the cushion forms and covers for our order a=e no longer in stock, so the factory would be creating forms and patterns =or this order specifically.

The factory's quo=e came back so high that Eduardo got his manager involved and they are see=ing another quote from a different factory. He did not tell me the n=mbers, just said it was unacceptable, and they have gone on to another fac=ory for a quote.

I will call him on Monday to see=if the quote is ready, if I have not heard from him by then.

Kind regards, DW
