

From: [REDACTED] (WJC wjc)
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Fw: The band plays on - (catchy title Lloyd)
Sent: Friday, June 21, 2002 3:14:55 PM

It is going to be a long day, this from the wash post. In case you were wondering, yes, I think it is all your fault

-----Original Message-----

From: Mary Morrison <[REDACTED]>
Subject: The band plays on - (catchy title Lloyd)
I am only up because I just watched the Brasil game.. here is the Washington Post Piece - Lloyd did not screw you - it is a good piece.

<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/articles/A20811-2002Jun20.html>

The Band Plays On

1 1/2 Last time we checked in with Douglas Band -- former president Bill Clinton's personal aide, who is so stern and strapping that he's often mistaken for a Secret Service agent -- he was shutting down a C-SPAN cameraman trying to tape Clinton's remarks at a book party for Rep. Peter King (R-N.Y.).

Now we hear that when Clinton's young protector isn't blocking pesky reporters from bothering his boss at a Washington fundraiser, Band is snuggling with a famous supermodel at a trendy Manhattan restaurant.

First the fundraiser story: Washington Times metro reporter Jabeen Bhatti was assigned to cover the party at the home of Beth and Ron Dozoretz for the Daniel Pearl Foundation. Spotting Clinton, Bhatti told us yesterday, she walked toward him through the crowd with notebook ready when Band blocked her path. "It's inappropriate to ask any questions," she quoted Band as instructing her at an event held to celebrate a free and unfettered press. Bhatti regrouped and tried again. "Why do you think it's important to be here?" she innocuously asked Clinton -- who turned away in response, she said.

Now the interesting stuff: Monday's New York Daily News reported that Naomi Campbell was seen "snuggling" with a new man at Serafina. We have it on good authority that the man was Band. Campbell's publicist, Howard Rubenstein, told us the two are "just friends." Unfortunately Band did not respond to a message we left yesterday, and there was no comment, none at all, from the Clinton camp.

-----
Do You Yahoo!?
Sign-up for Video Highlights of 2002 FIFA World Cup