hey. carole told me you were having some computer troubles, which i guess must be true, because my email program says the date you sent your message was 11/15/02. hmmm.

there is no porn site for megajeff. at least that i'm aware of. the only porn you'll get out of me is the occasional dirty email. but the subscription is very expensive.

your ears must have been burning. i was having dinner tonight with drew carey and the guys from 'whose line is it anyway?' and we were talking about our encounter with you.

let me know how things are in new york. are you keeping warm?

bye,
jeff
