Sounds to me like there are many more compliments in store for you! I'm here til Friday evening, doing my best to avoid holiday shopping. Please bring us some warmth and sunshine, we need it.
A million thanks.

Got the e mail - I have actually given it to JE so he can look at it and get in touch w/the people at Vic Secret for you - I will keep you informed. I actually have to come to NY for a few days and will be there from tom until Fri - are you around?

Keep well - thanks for the compliments - I never tire of those

Hopefully see you soon

Salut ma belle. Je viens de t'envoyer toute la propagande sur Seeds of Peace. Hope I'm not being too pushy and appreciate any level of help you can offer, as well as any suggestions. If you come to the event, I can probably arrange for you to meet the former President!!! (just kidding -- though he will be there and I'm sure he'd be delighted to see you; btw, everyone has been talking about the trip to Africa and how fabulous you are.)

I'm still terribly jealous of your current location but hope you are enjoying yourself in the tropics.

A bientot et mille mercis,

Leah

p.s.: What's your mother's address, so I can send her a holiday card?
