Dearest naughty girl!

As hard as I tried, I could not open the farting website! may be you could send me a direct special humorous card but that particular site will not open her although googles says it known it! Probably, my guardian angel must have decided that it was not clean enough for my sensitive eyes...
Anyway, thanks for the thought.

I had a lovely quiet Christmas at Ian and Tara's and an equally bedlammy boxing day at Kevin and Pandora's .

Isabel is in India making a grand tour of the country!

With much love as always

your loving Maman
