Hey!!!

How do we apply - Patti and I have been looking for something to do - maybe we could qualify - we promise we won't seal, maybe just "gonoff" a little...

IT'S hard to find good help these days. That's what New York media heiress Ghislaine Maxwell is saying now that her two domestic servants have been arrested for allegedly stealing belongings from her East 65th townhouse. The devious duo - butler Victor Sagucio and his wife, the maid, Marabini - were arrested for allegedly stealing more than $7,600 in cash, plus $10,000 in clothing and jewelery. The Crime Blotter of the New York Observer reports that Maxwell found the goods when she ventured into the couple's apartment in the basement of her building.
