Dear Ghislaine.

I know that you know Michael Bloomberg - (actually I know him also- had lunch with him on my own a few years ago) -

I want to open a NY office of Research on Demand - in the lower part of Manhattan (to take advantage of the small business loans available for encouraging business to come back to NYC - the lower part.

I am a woman owned company (100%). (California corporation)- since 1982 - in good standing - I want to really restart Research on Demand to launch the Perfect Spelling Personalized Spelling Dictionary (online and hard copy) series.

I'm looking for $100 - 150,000 to create the prototype online spelling personalized dictionary..... along with published hard copy and exercise books....

The SBA do give long term, low interest loans - which is great...I'd be happy for them to take a lien out on the business - but I don't have the ability to put up personal collateral - Anyway, I'm hoping that my start-up business track record - sold my first start-up for 18 Million after two years, got 24 million dollars for my second start- up from HP....

Do you think you might be able to help me?

There are over 1.5 billion people learning English around the world today and it's growing all the time.....

love Christine

I have other docs but I just wanted to send you a bit of stuff first...
