[REDACTED],

Here are some photos of this thing. I know little or nothing about antiques, but the folks who are seem to be beside themselves about this thing. Very few in existence, yada, yada, ect.

The outdoor shot of the one drawer is partially refurbished and looks great to me. The whole thing is to be done and I just wanted the powers that be to know about it if there is any interest. There is a litany of information that is associated with the thing and more photos can be sent.

Regards

Boscoe
