hi ghislaine,
i called you earlier but pronounced your name wrong which was a serious faux pas so your assistant thought i was a stalker or something. anyway, i would love to continue our talk about my business.....i have since then already hired someone to write my business plan (thanks to you!) as well as hired a girl to help me with marketing,etc. so things are moving along quite nicely.
hope to chat soon,
annie churchill
