Subject: sorry about wednesday

dear ghislaine,
i just received a guilty message that i had already accepted something for wednesday.
i would have much preferred 'cosy' chats and time with you. unfortunately it would be too rude at this point for to cancel this long standing arrangement.
ha ha! now i know why i don't usually make them. i forget.
please excuse my added rudeness by having to rearrange our wednesday.
can you do friday at all. or thursday.
please let me know. fond wishes and love annx
