Hi Phil, just heard back from Broker re: [REDACTED] The owner is still not ready to show, the broker said she will probably know on Monday (late in the day) a price and when she can begin to show.

In the meantime, A large apartment came on the market in the galleria on the 34th floor. I know your friend lives there so I thought it might be of interest to you (even though it's not pre-war).
