For the stuff. Didn't get time to check out Dougs the other material, but I will. The dictionary is perfect, I'll need it. I have a midwestern one coming for you full of uselss additional words you can add at then end of sentences :).

Been a very long day. Good, but very emotionally draining. Talked to a solicitor as I believe you'd call them. Very enlightening. Talked to JW, and equally enlightening. Spent a lot of time with the kids.

It's all really hitting home, and it's all better than expected at this point but I'm exhausted. Going to meet a friend who just quit Gateway, call me if you wish.

Hope you had a great day, and had a chance to do everything you wanted and nothing you didn't.
