Dear Darling Ghislaine,

Things are really busy here and also things are changing rapidly about tomorrow. This is because my meeting in Orlando has been cancelled as the man has had to go into Hospital for a knee op. My team who were with him in Antigua told him to go and have it fixed and he is still there.

I am now trying to get his plane to deliver me to New York on Monday sometime in the afternoon or at least around then but it could be as early as lunchtime.

I have to be back at Teterboro' at 1130 on Tuesday to go to Montreal. I will then return directly through JFK in the evening to catch my flight at 2100 to London. I am needed back in town on Wednesday.

So I will ring you later today or tomorrow morning with the final timings. Sorry to be so uncertain this late in the day! The policeman is doing his nut!

Love A xxx
