Funny, was feeling the same way ... Having been desperately waiting for a call, visit or very least flowers on Valentines Day.

Will be in NYC last week of June/first week of August i.e. Starting June 28.

Wanna do dinner, lunch or afternoon milk and cookies.

Actually will be with Dr Burda. We should think about a dinner one evening with a bunch of cool people. He loves these types of gatherings.

Let me know what you think and whether you will be in town that week.

Hugs and stuff

Gregory
