Darren is starting to make my life a nightmare.
I don't know who is his boss but please tell him that he must stay out of that now!
He is asking for a much more detailed budget with the details of item per item with costs will be spent inside Publicis and with one outside, etc...

It is too early to know that today!
We have no idea of what will be the programme, the venue, the hotels, the consultants, the speakers, etc...

We (Publicis Events) are financing since months that project and investing a big amount of time..
I have no idea of what will be the Publicis profit at this stage and I hope that at the end of the day we will be able to keep our honoraria as a profit for Publicis Events..

So as I trust you and JE at 300% they must trust us!
So please help me to unlock the situation..
Warm regards

Richard
