Ok, is it the BVI or is flying somewhere the problem? If flying is not the problem are there other geographic no no's? Otherwise Miami is the obvious choice. It's not that we have to leave, we could just stay in bed for 2 days, but I would feel awkward bumping into JE w/you somewhere around. We could do an Everglade thing w/the boat tom and the Emerald thing in the early evening as an idea. Am trying to work, but am being hopeless. Just want to climb back into bed w/you. If you are not last are you second from bottom?
