Attach prices etc for Lowndes Square. Our friend Simon who works for the developers will try and help you in whatever way he can - if you went ahead with the purchase he is the person you would be dealing with over any alterations, extras etc that you required - he would probably be able to do a better deal on these as well for you. I don't think that there is any way that if you did go ahead we could get something out of it unless you asked Alistair Isles as the estate agent to give us an introductory fee!! - I don't know how these things work but Simon Marshall thought that Jeffrey should pay us a finders fee as without us you wouldn't have been able to see the property as early on as you did!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Don't mention Simon Marshall to the Agent - he wants to be kept out of it as far as you are concerned so that any inside info he can help with doesn't seem to originate from him! Hope you had a wonderful evening and massage with Felicity. Lots of love Katiexxx
