Pre Tuesday life was just wonderful. Post Tuesday it is still wonderful but sad. Since I last saw you I renovated a town house which I just moved into 2 months ago. I have a new management consultancy business which is fun and was doing well. I have been to a flight School (not for Boeing but for helicopters) on how to crash your helicopter and survive. It is known as helicopter army boot camp. That lasted 1 week and felt like a year. Having survived that course hating it at the time I look back now and think I really enjoyed it and would do it again!. I've spent time in Tangier, which I don't recommend.

Ok, well there we have some of the highlights. I'd love to get together for a drink when I am back in NY. I'll send you an e mail when I am back

I hope all is well with you and that your life and career are flourishing.
