It was good to hear form you. I was in fact in NY and yes it was a terrible moment. You cannot escape knowing people involved in the tragedy if you live in NY. I had dinner w/ a friend yest who worked in tower 2 on the 80th floor and heard how he got out.

Regardless, everyone I am really close to is ok and that is fortunate. I am an optimist so I am sending you this attachment as it mirrors my sentiements.

I will be in England soon and will call you

Keep well
