I have just arrived in Palm Beach. I was in New York for 2 weeks as I cracked a tooth on a nut. You cannot believe how painful that was. I had to have the tooth removed as it had split down the middle! Anyway all is well now and I have half a real tooth and half a fake tooth and I cannot tell the difference. As I sd I am now in Palm Beach and hoping that the hurricane will pass me right by. When are you coming to the States? Let me know
