Vilest, did you hear what Carol did? She has a hidden camera in my bedroom. Just as hse saw that a truly huge hideous ugly repellent spot was growing (people asked whether or not surgery could remove the Siamese twin that was clearly attached to my face) She invited me to dinner. By some chance(so she says) your cousin was seated at the next door table. Not possible that such a coincidence could be for real. I know that she did that so that he would look at me and recoil in horror. I hate Carol bitch bitch bitch

Gx

PS&nbs; what say you
