Don't be suprised if you suddenly receive a deluge of e mails from me. I sent you a couple before I realized that my computer was saying that it was sending the e mails but they were going to the mystery e mail receiver in the sky. (all my e mails for the last week have gone to the mystery receiver) A technician is coming to mend the computer or tinker w/the system - let me know if you get this one

What do you mean that there is no porn site for megajeff? Minijeff I understand but megajeff??? How extremely disappointing. You must admit - megajeff just sounds well porn like?

Ok, well I thought you would like to know that I have finally recovered from the mortifying moment when I became a lollipop salesperson. I would have loved for my stage debut to have been well something more. You definitely must have done something right in your last life to have had both Carol and myself sandwiching you like two book ends - especially after that experience

Ok - well you can see by the length of this e mail that I have been suffering form emailitis - a well know condition when your e mail fails - so I shall leave you now

Ghislaine

PS

Please don't be shy about repeating any thing that was sd the other night - I am a total sucker for compliments (hoping that that is what they were)
