Charlie,

I have to admit, this one made me laugh. I actually had John show me the toothbrush to see why they couldn't seem to get the heads in right. John blamed it on the cleaning ladies and I told him to personally change the heads to avoid future problems. It never occurred to me that they were buying the wrong heads...say, did it ever occur to you that all these people are touching your toothbrush heads after they clean the toilets...sorry, I'm still laughing and felt compelled to point that out...

Hum, I better check with [REDACTED]; John sent them toothbrush heads for the Island!!!

I'll make myself available whenever you're available to discuss this.

I know you will find this as hard to believe as I do. My toothbrush head was put on backwards, I gave it to John to sort out, and yet again it was the wrong toothbrush head!!! Also I had not regular toothbrush by my sink!
