Thrilled you are coming. You can even come tonight if you want or for breakfast tom or as I know you have some Miami interest I can just meet you in Miami. I was planning to drive to Miami arriving around 5/6pm. You can decide what you would like to do you can fly to PB and we can fly or drive to Miami. I was planning to come back to PB early Sat morning ie leave any time I got bored. You can stay in PB if you like or Miami. Any way you know the rule, what ever makes you happy. My plan, such as it exists is to go to Eddie's hse (the formula 1 driver) and hang around there until Nicholas Begruens party and go to that and then go to several others. I was planning to meet up with other friends and in my general disorganized fashion just go with the flow. Now you know as much as I do
