Hey, you can be proud, no movies instead I cooked dinner for 6! All the local geriatrics came for dinner. The usual blondes etc. See I have a whole new skill set you were not even aware of.

Anyway thought I would update you on my plans. I am going back to NY tom - wheels up at 11.30am and then Thurs to Paris back the following week. Just letting you know if you needed to hitch a ride

Gx
