My thoughts were lunch and sunbathing followed by shopping movies and back to Miami. I am leaving for NY just now but will be back in a couple of weeks. Maybe we can get together then. See you next time

PS

Jessica, the home no. you left for me does not seem to work, at least the guy who answers is not that friendly! Give me a call - I thought you and Sarah might like to come to PB for the day. My driver is down in Miami today so he can bring you up and back if you like. Give me a call [REDACTED] - speak to you later
