Morning - the story is in the Mail and it is not about me but about Naomi. The only mention that I get is that ' the couple were reintroduced through one of Clinton's friends GM. She is known to her friends as a social matchmaker she is believed to have introduced Clinton to Sophie Dahl during his March visit. + there is one other line in a double page spread that says that I have intro Andrew to Society beauties! There are pics of Naomi & the President together.
