Thank you for taking the time to meet with me. I enjoyed meeting you too. I really appreciate you taking the time to think and possibly introduce me to some potential people who could work as either the estate manager or the construction person. Equally if you think of any candidates for the masseuse/ exercise position I would be equally happy

Thank you again for your time - I look forward to speaking to you soon

Hi Ghislaine

I had a great time talking at lunch today....and I just wanted to thank you. I love your perspective on life and people. You are so refreshing, insightful, and most importantly, honest with yourself and others. I admire that and I put myself in the same category (albeit, with a boring suburban life).

I will be contacting some individuals this week to help you. I hope it will work out. Please do not hesitate to contact me for anything, anytime. I look forward to talking and seeing you again.
