Subject: Hey

Have been talking to JE about you / me / him and me / the next 10 yrs etc since I got off the phone w/you. We had a very comprehensive, thoughtful and honest conversation. You became you in this conversation - your pseudonym went bye bye - thought you would like to know that he wants to invite you to lunch w/[REDACTED] and Glen - just kidding. There were some awkward moments for me (not for him he sd) but as usual he surprised me. I am really (thought I'd use that word for you) a lucky lucky girl. I'll talk to you when we speak next. I am on my phone if you want to call -
