This is what Tom wants me to go to LA for and then for us, you me Tom to have lunch/ dinner something -

He is also maybe going to invite me in 2 weeks to go to Kabul - Do you think begging is undignified - or maybe he is just holding out me going to Kabul to see me beg? I am so excited - apparently it is very very dangerous, I have to wear flap jacket, and he is quite confident I will get shot at - his pilots had to have special training for a spiral? landing to go to Kabul.

Just thought I would share as I just got off the phone w/him and I am dancing around I am so excited

This is the invite for LA.
