Hey, will probably know more by the end of Sept at this point - I will be coming, just don't know how much yet. How's your summer?

Hi Miss Maxwell,
Just checking in with you. How are things? I'm curious if you are still thinking that you may be coming out here once a month. Last we spoke you thought it might start as soon as September and that perhaps I could work for you one week a month or so. Is this still a possibility?

Let me know your thoughts.

Big hug,
