I am in Chicago. Probably in NY on Sunday, will you be there? I had a fun weekend in Marrakech. Too much food, but a good time. I am a bachelor for another week, but I have to deal with Kaka. Margot is in Kathmandu. My uncle has pushed me over the line and it's time to go medieval on him.

I heard from my original girlfriend (the one who was with me for Al Fatah). I emailed to see if my facts were right (or whether it was all a CNN inspired nightmare.) Her memory was actually remarkably close to mine...and of course she too had been telling the story of late.

That's it. Where are you this weekend? Can we create a scene? I may be free. We are inaugurating a huge ship in NY if you want to bring a gang onto that. Where are you going to be?

Madness is knocking.
