I tried Richardson again this afternoon since I did not get a return call but no answer. I'm not entirely sure that having Randy involved will help rather than hinder the cause at this point in the process. I would prefer that we wait to get confirmation that there is absolutely nothing left to do with her file.

Randy is not exactly a light touch or diplomatic and I don't want the board members to feel that they are threatened into approving Karyna. I will call everyday and I will call Donald as well. Please note that the board members are not Gov't employees.

With that said, it's obviously your decision re calling Randy.

With warm regards,

Cecile
