He's right
Stay small as an org but do big things that scale Billg missed that part...

He also pushes hard on the part about disruption and fixing proems as =pposed to thinking about system changes and silly pieces Again billg missed this part

I'm in Seattle this week at bills
Request to help quietly build his strategy on primary health systems a=d it Is frustrating bc you don't build systems you build stuff and systems =row around them

The ecosystem for health is just so broken and dominated by a philanth=opy attitude

Grrr

Anyway
